Dear Mr McLear,

We do not take you to court because this is not a criminal offence. We do register the debt at court though so that we can pass your details onto our bailiffs. Neither yourself or us as the Council attend County Court.

Please note though that further costs will be incurred if payment is not made.

Kind Regards

John Woodman

Dear Mr McLear,

I am writing to you regarding the above Penalty Charge Notice.

We have not ignored any correspondence that you have sent us but there is a clear and defined system for appealing that needs to be followed. This is explained on the Penalty Charge Notice, your letter of rejection and the Notice to Owner.

You appealed this PCN back in May but your appeal was unsuccessful. You then tried to appeal again before an Notice to Owner was issued to you (you must wait until this is issued otherwise you will be sent a 2nd appeal before NTO letter). A 2nd appeal before NTO letter has been produced twice and sent out to you on the 11th and 17th May 2010.

We then sent you a Notice to Owner on the 18th June 2010, this would have allowed you to make a formal representation against the PCN, you chose not to do this and since then we have sent you a Charge Certificate on the 19th July 2010. You now have no right of appeal and the PCN must be paid. The amount outstanding currently stands at £75.00. You can make payment by calling 01274 434300.

If you have any queries regarding this then please call me on the number below.

Kind Regards

John Woodman

You keep sending me letters about this.

I have appealed it and you ignored my appeal.

Again all correspondence is public including the letters you send me.

Parking fine BQ41022500 was incorrectly issued. As documented you will see BOTH of my warnings have been INCORRECTLY ISSUED.

I proved I had a parking ticket for this incorrect fine THAT WAS ISSUED IN ERROR.

Are you still going to try to fine me?

From this point on all correspondence is going publicly available under the Apache GPL 2 license.
